Engaging the 21st century issues of urbanization at home and around the world

OPEN HOUSE - Wednesday, February 6th
5-7pm, Wurster Hall Room 106

All are welcome! Refreshments will be served.

Come hear about exciting new research and practice opportunities from faculty and graduate students.

Learn about the GMS Designated Emphasis for PhD students

Research clusters and student groups, including:
- Global Immigration and American Cities
  - City Food: Urban Food Security
- Urban Informal Settlements and Health Equity
- Violence, the City, and Democracy in the Global South